

Simultaneous Fork Positioner

Forklift Truck Load Protectors eliminate expensive scratching, marring, scuffing and chipping by means of providing a padded non-slip surface between product and steel fork. These attachments are molded from premium polyurethane in accordance with OEM conditions. It is extremely fast to install the Load Protectors as they fit right above the typical lift truck tines using mounting hardware.